DEVELOPMENTS: ENCOUNTERS OF FORMATION IN THE LATIN AMERICAN AND HISPANIC/LATINO BILDUNGSROMAN (HARDBACK)

Peter Lang Publishing Inc, United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Developments: Encounters of Formation in the Latin American and Hispanic/Latino Bildungsroman, a notable contribution for students and scholars of Latin American, Brazilian, Hispanic and Latino literature, explores a significant but overlooked area in the literary production of the twentieth century: the connections between development and the narrative of formation after World War II. Recognizing development as a discursive construction that shapes significantly modern national identity in Latin America, Alejandro Latinez argues that its ideals and narrative relate to the Bildungsroman genre - the narrative of formation or development. The study presents a historical background of similar ideals of development in Latin America as well as reflects on a seminal philosophical interplay about youth and modern national identity between the Mexican authors Samuel Ramos and Octavio Paz. Furthermore, it examines Mario Vargas Llosa s 1963 La ciudad y los perros, Jose Lezama Lima s 1966 Paradiso, a selection from Clarice Lispector s 1960 and 1964 short narratives, and Elena Poniatowska s 1971 testimony La noche de Tlatelolco. The narrative experience in the United States is analyzed in Sandra Cisneros s 1984 The House on Mango Street and Esmeralda Santiago s 1993 When I Was Puerto Rican.
