Excerpt: .research may throw some light on this difficult subject. At all events in one way this memorandum is highly interesting. It gives us a list of some 70 names of men, chiefly Danish men, in the wiking period. So old a Danish name-roll as this has never been found before. In order that we may use this costly list the better, I here arrange the names in alphabetical order, numbering them, and placing after them the line in which they appear. MENS NAMES.
