Brand New Book  Print on Demand .People are not born knowing what it means to be a good friend. Almost everyone has experienced the pain of having a fair-weather friend. For these reasons, What is a Friend? has been written by celebrated author, Terri Kelley. In her trademark lyrical rhyme, Terri introduces the reader to what it takes to be a great friend and what to watch out for in people only pretending to be a friend. Coupled with fabulous illustrations by the very talented Marietta Tecson, this story will engage and inform all who read it. This is sure to become one of those books that children love to read and to have read to them over and over again.
