Margo: A Blue Harbor Novel (Paperback)

By Molly Dillon

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After her husband dies, leaving her a widow at forty-five, Margo Blair finds herself a victim of his lies and innuendos. Starting over, she sells her home and all her possessions to return to the town where she once lived as a teenager. In this quaint, seaside village, she befriends her lively neighbor, an endearing woman of eighty, who exudes energy and fun. The friendship leads to the making of a memory quilt, to long-hidden secrets, and lost loves. What will the secrets reveal? On her own for the first time, can Margo, like the proverbial caterpillar, experience a metamorphosis and transform from a shy, insecure woman into a strong, confident force? Or will the secrets destroy her? Acclaim for Margo A must-read if you love people, quilts and chocolate. - Amanda Ashley, NY best-selling author Molly Dillon s story, Margo, touches something in all of us. I wasn t satisfied until I d read the last page. - Judy McAllister, author of Flyer A rich story of love, friendship, and courage. - Carol Amato, author and publisher...
