There are, perhaps, few places in this country the equal of Ocean Grove for the rendering of these oratorios and musicales on such an elaborate scale and in such a masterly order as has been produced here during this present season, under the able leadership of Mr. Tali Esen Morgan. Words of praise and commendation are spoken on every Bide of the efficient chorus and orchestral work which Mr. Morgan and his assistants have accomplished. In choruses in various cities Mr. Morgan has under his immediate directorship a total of 1, 000 or more trained singers, thus enabling him to marshal a force of from. TOO to 700 for a single performance. MUSICAL EVENTS The successive musical events this season have been as follows: July 15, The Nativity; July 19.
