[...] and, while we acknowledge our inability to do the subject ample justice; yet hoping we have been made the humble instrument, under the direction of Divine Providence, of opening up to the mind a new field for profitable contemplation we ask for it a candid perusal, in the spirit of prayer and Christian leniency, commending all to a careful consideration of the words of the Psalmist: By the word of the Lord were the Heavens made, and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth. The Heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament sheweth His handy work.[.] .
