Thistledown Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A crowded bar is the setting of the story Munroe s Mandolin in which a sister attempts to track down her junkie musician brother while managing her job and her own tattered dreams. In The Pickup Man a man takes his brother s abused ex-wife and his nephew to the Drumheller rodeo where they encounter the Wild Lilies - a group of middle-aged buckle bunnies - and one finds romance while the other considers the plight of a woman whose joy is busted. Appetites follows a single mother and chef who has lost her sense of taste. When she and her son are befriended by the mysterious new waiter, she thinks things are beginning to look up, until she discovers her new friend s dark secret. Nerve takes place at a riding competition where a seasoned female ranch owner struggles with mentoring a clumsy, nervous teenager who is cracking under the pressure of her harsh and demanding father. In The Valley of the Shadow a struggling artist seeks refuge from a bad breakup by taking a job at a ski resort in Fernie. She quickly befriends a motel employee whose dark past has caused him to age before his time. The Good Husband begins with a retired man and his neighbour discussing marital fidelity. When his friend confesses to seeking comfort outside his marriage to an injured dancer who has given up on life, Alex watches from next door as his friends marriage deteriorates. A farmer s life is changed forever in Prairie Selkie when he discovers three young women with silver skin dancing on his farmland. Recognizing them as figures from the legends his Scottish granny told him as a...
