OCLC Number: (OCoLC)37511933 Subject: Special funds -- United States -- Management. Excerpt: . . . B-259833 13 DOD In our March 9, 1994, report, we pointed out that had (1) included performance measures in the Funds fiscal year 1994 annual operating budgets and (2) begun developing the corresponding goals for some DLA supply management and distribution depots. business areas, such as However, almost a year later, DOD had developed only 14 goals for the Funds 69 performance measures. For example, for the Navy Fund DOD business areas, had identified 25 performance measures but had developed only 4 corresponding goals as of February 1995. officials, they stated that with the DOD When we discussed the report with passage of the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993, they were devoting their efforts to developing performance measures to also stated that the performance DOD accomplish the objectives of the act. measures developed for the Fund were one-liners and were not DOD sufficient to meet the criteria set forth in the act. further noted that one of its pilot programs under the act is the Defense Logistics Agency, which is a Fund activity. DOD faces formidable challenges in resolving the Funds problems. Conclusions However, many of these problems, such as inadequate systems, are the result of years of neglect and date from the old industrial and stock funds. As we have pointed out and DOD has recognized, the Funds financial systems cannot produce accurate and reliable information on the results of the Funds operations. Until these antiquated systems are eliminated, (1) the infrastructure costs of maintaining multiple systems...
